

Residential Mortgage Loan Application Checklist

To submit your application, the following information must be provided:

- Uniform Residential Loan Application

It is important that this application is filled out as completely as possible. If you have any questions, we will be glad to assist you. An incomplete application can lead to delays in processing your request.

It is “mandatory” that your application lists:

- Name(s)
- Social Security Number (s)
- Subject property address
- Monthly income(s)
- Property value or best estimate
- Amount of loan request
- Signature(s)

After the “Good Faith Estimate” is received you may submit additional information for loan determination. This includes “Proof of Income”. You must be able to prove that you have sufficient and verifiable income to afford your request.

Acceptable Proof of Income may be:

- W-2's
- 2 years of tax returns
- 3 current pay stubs (showing year to date income)
- Letters from employers
- Annuity Schedules
- Bank statements showing monthly deposits
- Social Security/Disability statements of monthly benefits (if the borrower/co-borrower chooses)
- Alimony orders/deposits
- Child support orders/deposits

If funds are requested for improvements, a list of improvements with contractor estimates and/or invoices for construction materials must be provided.

If the loan will consolidate debt, a list of the proposed debt/bills to be paid must be included.
